

Sarah Griffin

Sarah has extensive experience in all major reimbursement applications within the Australian Healthcare System.

She has implemented health economic and reimbursement programs within the Asia-Pacific region.

She is an expert strategist and can navigate the complex political and policy landscape that surrounds reimbursement and health financing systems.

Principal Consultant for Reimbursement Sarah Griffin provides expert consultancy services relating to reimbursement, health financing and health economics in Australia, New Zealand and the Asia Pacific. Sarah is also responsible for management oversight of all reimbursement consulting projects.

Business Profile

Sarah has more than 25 years experience in the medical technology sector including health economics, health insurance, health policy and legislation, medical finance and reimbursement systems and government relations. Sarah's strengths lie in her strategic approach to market access and the creation of effective reimbursement and health economic strategies. She is a registered lobbyist and an expert in preparing complex reimbursement submissions. She has assisted many medical technology companies gain market access for innovative technologies.

She has filled senior and international roles with St Jude Medical, MBF and Mercy Health Services in the United States. Sarah received her B.App Sc (Physio) from the University of Sydney and a GradDip in Health Economics and Policy from Monash University. She is currently a member of the Medical Technology of Australia's Reimbursement Sub-Committee and a member of the AusBiotech Health Economics Expert Panel